

Media Permission Form

Students at KDES and MSSD participate in activities or events in which they may be photographed or videotaped. Additionally, as part of its National Mission, the Clerc Center produces and distributes information nationally about the education of deaf and hard of hearing students.

This form establishes formal parent/guardian permission for student participation in photographs, videotapes, and interviews and the use of student work in publications and other media, such as but not limited to:

- Student yearbooks or other student-created work such as hallway displays
- Clerc Center websites and managed pages on social media sites
- Clerc Center publications such as Odyssey
- Clerc Center videos, brochures and other informational materials
- Gallaudet University publications, videos and websites
- External publications and media, including newspapers and newscasts

Students and their parents/guardians will not be compensated.

Please check the appropriate boxes below and sign this form. Where no choice is made, “yes” will be the assumed answer.
