

Just for Fun

Now that you and your child have read the story, enjoy one or more of the following activities. Remember, it's also OK to read the story again and again!

Celebrating Valentine's Day: My Special Valentines

Written by Kimberly Roark.

Illustrated by Melissa Iwai.

Copyright © 1999 by Creative Teaching Press, Inc.

All rights reserved. Used by permission of Creative Teaching Press, Inc.

Produced under Chapter 1 of Title 17, section 121 of the U.S. Code (Copyright Act).

Any further reproduction or distribution in a format other than a specialized format is an infringement of copyright.

Activities

- Play with your child by taking turns in completing the sentence: I love mommy/daddy because _____ / I love (child's name) because _____.
- Cut out paper hearts and encourage your child to write short notes on them, such as "Happy Valentine's Day!" or "You're my friend!" and give them out to family members, friends, or classmates.
- Help your child make a Valentine's poster from old Valentine cards. Together, cut out the illustrations or pictures shown on the cards and glue them to a piece of construction paper. Add a message to the pictures by cutting words from magazines or newspapers on the poster you created. Display the poster on your refrigerator door.

Read More About It!

If you and your child enjoyed this book, look for these related titles at your local library or bookstore: Guess How Much I Love You by Sam McBratney, I Love You as Much by Laura Krauss Melmed, Valentine's Day by Gail Gibbons, Word Bird's Valentine Words by Jane Belk Moncure, and Today is Valentine's Day by P.K. Hallinan.

Gallaudet University

Laurent Clerc National Deaf Education Center

Working for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Children Throughout the United States

