Activities

- Wrap a favorite cracker/wafer/cookie and hide it. Write a form of reward on the wrapper (e.g., a box of crayons). Tell your child that you are going to play "find the afikomen" just like in the story. After finding the afikomen, let your child read the reward on the wrapper.
- In the story, asking a Passover question is one part of the holiday. Have your child ask a Passover question. Answer the question based on what the story said, then reverse roles with your child.
- Rent a closed captioned videotape of the movie Prince of Egypt and watch it with your child. Tell your child that what happened in the movie is the reason why Jews celebrate Passover.
