

Now that you and your child have read the story, enjoy one or more of the following activities. Remember, it's also OK to read the story again and again!

I Like Me!

Written, illustrated, and copyrighted © 1988 by Nancy Carlson.

All rights reserved. Used by permission of Penguin Books USA, Inc.

Produced under Chapter 1 of Title 17, section 121 of the U.S. Code (Copyright Act).

Any further reproduction or distribution in a format other than a specialized format is an infringement of copyright.

Activities

- With your child, cut a heart shape out of paper for each family member. Be sure to include a heart for the child. On each shape, list special things about a particular family member. Share the hearts at mealtime and then hang them in a special place.
- The character in this story keeps on trying when things aren't going well. Notice and comment on your child's efforts to solve problems.
- There are many examples of good health habits in this story, such as eating properly and exercising. Help your child think about other good habits, such as getting enough sleep and wearing clothes appropriate for the weather.

Read More About It!

If you and your child enjoyed this book, look for these related titles at your local library or bookstore: Quick as a Cricket by Audrey Wood, I Have a Friend by Narahashi Keik, I Like to be Little by Charlotte Zolotow, Watch Me by Anne Mazer.

